

Bannack State Park: 2018 Entertainment & Education Series

The Schedule is Subject to Change: For Information please call 406-834-3413

- June 2 @ 10 am: Guided Hike: A 2.1-mile guided hike in Bannack State Park. The trail provides excellent views of Bannack, the surrounding countryside and hopefully a variety of wildflowers.
- June 9 @ 2 pm: Historical Presentation: "From the Three Forks to the Divide: Lewis & Clark in southwest Montana" - The journey through southwest Montana was full of challenges and they also had a little bit of luck. Presented by the Park Staff.
- June 23 @ 7 pm: Live Music: Musical Medicine Show presented by Tammie Jones & Friends. Tammie brings together a group of talented musicians and if you need to boost your spirits this might just be the medicine for you.
- June 30 @ 7 pm: Live Music: HomeTown Classics - Jerry Burtt and his talented friends will captivate listeners with the music of yesteryear performing their favorite Classic Country, Western, Gospel and Bluegrass tunes.
- July 7 @ 2pm: Historical Presentation: "The Chinese in Montana: Our Forgotten Pioneers"
Presented by historian and award-winning author, Ellen Baumler. Chinese pioneers have been neglected in Montana's written record, even though in 1870 they comprised 10 percent of the population. What happened to these pioneers and where did they go?
- July 14 @ 2pm: Live Music: Nick Spear will be performing his original western songs. You may have heard Nick's songs on A&E and Lifetime Networks. His song "Tap 'er Light" was used at the centennial memorial ceremony at the Granite Mountain/Speculator Mine Disaster site in Butte.
- July 21-22: Bannack Days: "A Festival Celebrating Frontier Life" - Music, Food, Exhibits and much more. For more information check bannack.org or call the park at 406-834-3413.
- July 28 @ 2 pm: Wildlife Presentation: "Raptors of the Rockies; Celebrating 30 years of Raptor Education" - Join founder, raptor specialist and educator Kate Davis and her winged friends. Kate's presentation is phenomenal and you will have the opportunity to see up-close a Peregrine Falcon, Red-tailed Hawk, Great Horned Owl, and maybe a Northern Saw-whet Owl named Owen.
- Aug. 4 @ 7 pm: Live Music & Dancing: Barn Dance -Join the Best of Bannack for an entertaining night of music and dancing. Brought together by Wally Congdon some of these musicians have been playing at Bannack for more than 30 years.
- Aug. 11 @ 1 pm: Hands on Activities: "Kids Day" - Join the staff for a variety of activities including games, skulls & furs, doll making & gold panning. It should be a fun day for all ages.
- Aug. 18 @ 2pm: Fisheries Presentation: *Montana's Fish and Aquatic Species - Join us for an inside look at our fish and other aquatic life with FWP fisheries technician Lucas Bateman. The kids are sure to enjoy this one. See up close some of the aquatic life in Grasshopper Creek.
- Aug. 25 @ 2pm: Historical Presentation: "A Clash of Cultures: The Montana Gold Rush and the American Indian" Presented by Park Staff.
- Sep. 1 @ 7 pm: Movie Night: To Be Announced

The Saturday Entertainment & Education Series is made possible by the generous support of Pioneer Federal, Bank of Commerce, Murdoch's, Humanities Montana, Sundowner Hotel, Comfort Inn, & The Bannack Association.
