

MILLTOWN STATE PARK

EVENT PROGRAM

11:00 AM PARK DEDICATION
& SALISH DRUMMERS

12:30 PM A CONFLUENCE OF STORIES -
Michael Kustudia,
Montana State Parks

1:00 PM RESTORING THE SHINING WATERS -
David Brooks,
Montana Trout Unlimited

2:00 PM PLACE OF BULL TROUT -
David Schmetterling,
Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks

3:00 PM ANIMAL MOVEMENT THROUGH THE CONFLUENCE -Jamie Jonkel,
Montana Fish, Wildlife & Parks

4:00 PM BIRDS OF THE CONFLUENCE -
Kate Davis, Raptors of the Rockies
& Montana Osprey Project

ALL DAY ACTIVITIES

- Milltown Memory Booth
- Family-Friendly Plant Restoration
- Music From Milltown Dam
- Raffle Prizes
- Native Games
- Ranger Talks & Walks
- Kettlehouse Beer
- Food Trucks

SATURDAY, JUNE 23, 2018 | 11AM-6PM

FOR MORE INFO CALL 406-542-5533 OR EMAIL MKUSTUDIA@MT.GOV

THE EVENT

Join us for the opening celebration at the restored confluence of the Clark Fork and Blackfoot Rivers in the new Milltown State Park. Listen to Salish drummers. Plant a tree. Share a memory. See a peregrine falcon. Learn about river restoration and bull trout. Listen to a bluegrass band. Eat and drink locally. Celebrate free-flowing rivers. Enjoy Montana's newest state park on the first Saturday of the Summer.

