

FWP Northwest Lion Ecoregional Population Objective Committee Application

The purpose of the committee is to advise the Montana Fish and Wildlife Commission on management of the Northwestern lion ecoregional population for population sustainability at a target level that maximizes public satisfaction related to lion hunter opportunity, lion conflict, and ungulate population trends. The committee will recommend lion population trend, size, and sex-age composition at the end of the next 5-years. Committee members are expected to collaborate on a commission recommendation specific to the petition.
